SCHOOL OF LAW

SPRING 2004
EXAM NO. ___________

FINAL EXAMINATION
FEDERAL INCOME TAXATION
PROFESSOR G. FLINT

ESSAY
PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

ALL ANSWERS ARE TO BE WRITTEN ON THE BLUE BOOKS PROVIDED WITH THIS EXAM

There are three questions (time and percent indicated). The Time for completing the examination is three hours.

1. This examination is "open book". You may use your casebook, statutory supplement, and class notes. Use of calculators and cleansed laptops is permitted.

2. Be sure to answer the specific question that is asked. Information supplied relating to some unasked question will not increase your score and consumes you time needed to answer the asked questions.

3. If additional facts are necessary to resolve an issue, specify what additional facts you believe to be necessary and why they are significant. You may not make an assumption that changes or contradicts the stated facts.

4. Quality, not quantity, is desired. Think through and briefly outline your answer before you begin to write.

5. Write legibly. Be sure to formulate your answers in complete sentences and paragraphs with proper grammar. Failure to do so will result in an appropriately lower score.

6. Do not seek an interpretation of language in the question from anyone. If you sense ambiguity or typographical error, correct the shortcoming by shaping the question in a reasonable way and by recording your editorial correction in your answer.

Under the Honor Code, when you turn in this examination, you affirm that you have neither given, received, not obtained aid in connection with this examination, nor have you known of any one so doing. If you cannot make this affirmation, you shall note such fact on your examination and must immediately advise the Dean of the reason therefore.

You are an associate in the Silk Stocking Law Firm, P.C. Nicholas Pelletier, a firm client, has come into your office. Nicholas Pelletier, age 55, wants to know how to structure his divorce to minimize the year 2004 tax consequences for his potential divorce. His spouse, age 40, currently is amenable to any reasonable proposal. What are your conclusions. Be sure to give support of Internal Revenue Code sections and relevant case law.

Nicholas Pelletier is an engineer and earns annually $100,000, with adjusted gross income of $75,000. He has four children. Texas law will allow annual child support up to 35% of $75,000. His wife of ten years has a teaching job and earns annually $40,000. Texas law does not allow court mandated alimony in her situation, but the parties can agree to any contractual alimony they want. The assets of the community consist of a house with a value of $220,000 and an equity of $50,000, furniture and personalty of $70,000, two cars with equity of $10,000 and $5,000 respectively, a retirement plan worth $250,000 of which a spouse under a qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO") can withdraw 7/12, and a 401k plan worth $90,000 of which a spouse under a QDROI can withdraw all. Nicholas Pelletier’s separate estate consists of an investment fund of $300,000 with a basis of $50,000, live insurance with cash value of $30,000 and equity contributions to the house of $30,000, and to the cars of $30,000 and $15,000 respectively. Texas law only requires equal division of community property, but the parties may agree to any split they want. In bankruptcy, property settlement obligations are dischargeable, alimony is not.
